

Do you remember the Queens Jubilee celebrations last year in the High Street, how the village joined in together to create an all day street party which ended in many happy memories?

Well, a Village Summer Party has been organised for Saturday the 22nd June to rekindle that spirit where we can all eat, drink and be merry together and celebrate belonging to one of the most beautiful and sociable communities in Hampshire.

Up at the recreation ground, food will be an on-going barbeque, pizzas from a stone oven, and, in the afternoon, a fresh ice cream stand. There will be four different real ales, a choice of lagers, wine, sparkling wine and soft drinks.

- 9:30am – Cricket sixes tournament starts
- Noon – Barbeque lit and bar opens
- 2pm – Dylan’s fresh home made ice cream van arrives
- 5pm – Little Nicky’s stone oven pizzas arrive
- 6pm – Party starts
- 7pm – Mellow live acoustic music from Leo Dymond (local lad who was much appreciated at last years Beer Festival)
- 8pm to midnight – Music for everyone from Jack Tyrwitt-Drake

Profits from the day will be going towards the village school building works and other good causes within the village.
